Secretary

Juliet A. Emanuel has carved out a career in the academy over several decades. Currently she serves as a tenured professor at Borough of Manhattan Community College in the City University of New York system. Concurrently she has maintained a number of interests that are reflected her involvement in the community. These include commitments to cultural and social organizations, the Episcopal Church/Diocese of Long Island; youth groups and academic organizations. A writer and editor of academic and other texts, she is active in the life of BMCC/CUNY in many respects, including serving on committees at the BMCC and at the CUNY Central levels. At present she is the Executive Director of College English Association with complete oversight for all aspects of that organization. Dr. Emanuel is the Secretary of Guyana Cultural Association of New York, Inc. In this organization has plays an integral role in its administration with emphasis on its Summer Youth Programs, its Symposium and its Literary Hang, a gathering of writers. She was born in Guyana.
